Enjoy a special tour from Auckland to the beautiful Matakana region just an hour north of the city, showcasing stunning scenery including golden sand beaches, huge Kauri trees, as well as a vibrant food & wine selection with among other things honey, cheeses, yoghurts, wine, chocolate, ice cream and organic blueberries to choose from.

Tour Code: PWD MCC

Matakana is fast becoming one of the favourite destinations for locals and visitors to Auckland. With its boutique cuisine & wine experiences it is a must do on any trip to Auckland. Within easy reach of Downtown Auckland, Matakana is a special region with its spectacular Hibiscus Coastline and fertile countryside areas which are home to some of the best kept secrets that the Auckland region has to offer. With its lush landscape and fertile farmlands this private tour allows you to choose an exclusive itinerary with the option of including local producers of honey, cheeses, yoghurts, wine, chocolate, ice cream and organic blueberries.

There are other activities on offer from a New Zealand farm show, reptile park, superb coastlines and stunning beaches to snorkeling at Goat Island Marine Reserve. This Private Wine & Dine Tour from Auckland allows you to choose an exclusive itinerary on the day to match your interests with the option of including local producers of delicious foods and beverages.

On the way to or returning from Matakana, enjoy standing in front of a huge Kauri tree. Kauri are the 2nd largest trees in the world by volume of wood. Visit the Puhoi Bohemian Village, famous for its delicious cheeses and visit Waiwera with the option of visiting its thermally heated hot pools. Enjoy the scenic Hibiscus Coastline, simply enjoy walking along the magnificent Orewa Beach, take a refreshing dip in the ocean or learn all about New Zealand farming at Sheepworld near the country town of Warkworth.

Return to Auckland City after a special day in one of New Zealand's most beautiful regions that are a dream come true for guests that love great food, wine and scenery.
